A Dream Within a Dream
Edgar Allan Poe

Take this kiss upon the brow!
And, in parting from you now Thus much let me avow — You are not wrong who deem That my days have been a dream;
Yet if hope has flown away
In a night, or in a day,
In a vision, or in none,
Is it therefore the less gone?
All that we see or seem Is but a dream within a dream.

don't let the sun go down on me although i search myself, it's always someone else i see i'd just allow a fragment of your life to wander free but losing everything is like the sun going down on me.

everything comes and marked by lovers and styles of clothes things that you held high and told yourself were true lost or changing as the days come down to you everything comes and goes pleasure moves on too early and trouble leaves too slow just when you're thinking you've finally got it made bad news comes knocking at your garden gate knocking for you
constant stranger you're a brute — you're an angel you can crawl — you can fly too it all comes down to you

"the way i see it", he said
"you just can't win it . . . everybody's in it for their own gain you can't please 'em all there's always somebody calling you down i do my best

randall arthur samborn

Was a sunny day
Not a cloud was in the sky
Not a negative word was heard From the people passing by
Was a sunny day
All the birdies in the trees
And the radio's singing song
All the favorite melodies
— Paul Simon

Paris was where the twentieth century was.
— Gertrude Stein

cathy coulacos

May I say that I have loved me one or two of the people in my past fading faces in a waking dream and though they never seem to last very long there are faces I remember from those places in my past I said all the deadhead miles and the insincere smiles sometimes I can laugh and cry and I can't remember why but I still love those good times gone by hold on to them close or let them go, I don't know I just seem to sing these songs and I say I'm sorry for the friends I used to know.

— James Taylor

Their behavior bothered me a little. Danny was still as close to me as in the days when he and Chris and I rode and swam and skated together. Danny was often at Aunt Cordelia's, and I was just as often at his home where gentle Mrs. Trevort always made me welcome. Now, in the presense of Carlotta and Jimmy, he was scornful of me, and I found myself acting as haughtily toward him as if we were foes of long standing.

There is something wrong with this world, I thought.

— from Up a Road Slowly aaaaaaaaahhhh bonjourr!!!!

to look at any thing,
if you would know that thing, you must look at it long:
to look at this green and say 'i have seen spring in these woods,' will not do — you must be the thing you see:
you must be the dark snakes of stems and ferny plumes of leaves, you must enter in to the small silences between the leaves,
you must take your time and touch the very peace they issue from.

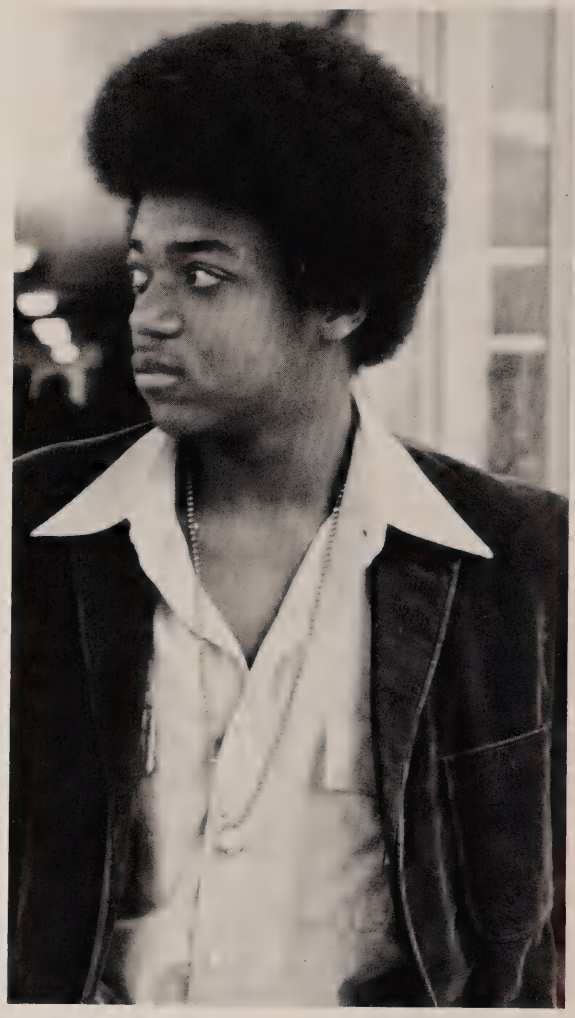
To Coach Nuzum:
I would personally like to thank you for all of the personal guidance and attention that you have given me in my four years at M.V. Thank you, Coach. I will never forget you and the many things that you have done for me. I know that as long as you're at M.V. there will be many more fine gentlemen and many outstanding football teams.



To Mr. Millhon:
I wish you all the luck and success in the coming years. M.V. only needed one thing, and that was a headmaster who could communicate with the faculty and the students. Now we have one, and I hope M.V. never lets you go.

charley l. settles
p.s. thanx, coach

in time the strong and stately turrets fall, in time the rose and silver lilies die, in time the monarchs captive are and thrall, in time the sea and rivers are made dry;
the hardest flint in time doth melt asunder;
still-living fame in time doth fade away;
the mountains proud we see in time come under;
and earth, for age, we see in time decay. the sun in time forgets for to retire from out the east where he was wont to rise; the basest thoughts we see in time aspire, and greedy minds in time do wealth despise.
thus all, sweet fair, in time must have an end, except thy beauty, virtues, and thy friend.

the road goes ever on and on down from the door where it began. now far ahead the road has gone, and i must follow, if i can pursuing it with weary feet, until it joins some larger way, where many paths and errands meet.
and wither then? i cannot say.

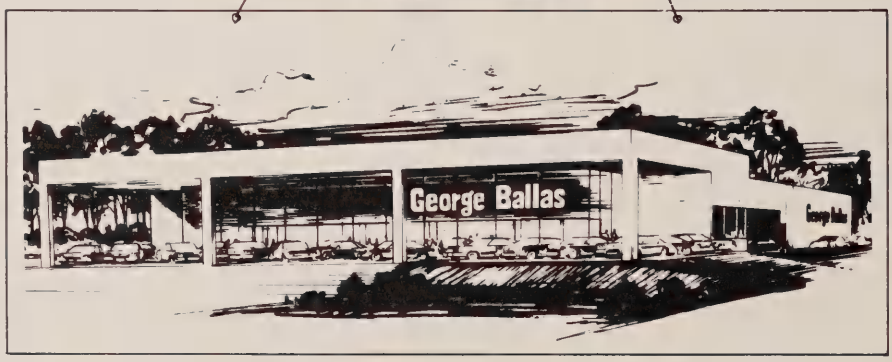
Mr. Buick (George Ballas) RE·INVENTS THE AUTO DEALERSHIP.



For 60 years, dealers have sold and serviced cars the same old way. You deserve better. So we re-invented the auto dealership.

We serve customers in ways no one else does. We'll check every critical point in your new car. With our guarantee, you'll pay for little except gas and oil.

Buying a used car? Our free book tells you what to look for and what to look out for. We have mechanics so proud of their work they sign it under your hood. And we sign a guarantee with it.

When you buy a car, we want you to pay less and enjoy more—trouble-free. So we went all the way.

We re-invented the auto dealership.
